While the 2016 cohort faced many challenges, particularly the loss of 9 candidates between the junior and senior year, they ultimately scored significantly better in pass-rate and earning the Diploma than has been the case in the past few years. Almost every subject saw improvement and are near to, or better than the world average. Math SL saw some of the best overall scores in several years. English HL, Spanish SL, French SL, Korean HL, and Visual Art HL, had a 100% pass rate. The TOK and extended essay scores are still below expectations, but I believe we will see the new model of TOK and EE support that was implemented with last year's junior class show significant improvement in the 2017 results. The class of 2017 did quite well on their exams. The statistic I am proudest of is that 5 of the 16 Diploma candidates exceeded expectations in earning their Diplomas—this is due in large part to the patience and support of our teaching staff who went above and beyond the call of duty to work with and support them. I also think that we will see improved results with the elimination of Math HL and after 2017, Physics HL.
